I made some minor edits to the draft letter to the FL Governor regarding completeness of submission. Although we still don't know when the package will be submitted it seems possible that we could receive it as early as tomorrow, and if so, we need to be prepared to immediately route this once we determine completeness (e.g., by early next week). If you have not already reviewed the letter please try to do by the end of this week. Attached is a link to the letter on our sharepoint site for your reference.
